August 23 – November 3, 2020

LUX63 Gallery

Via Bartolomeo D'Alviano, 23,

Daniela Danica Tepes, a visual artist, connects the artworks into an interactive installation in the form of a room in a house, where the threat of inundation is ever present as the waves have already covered more than half of the window height. Light, music, and sounds make up a combined point of departure for the works of media art, interactive installations featured in the exhibition. The artistic elements used in the artworks include sound, color, light, space and material. The presented art genres are interactive installation, video, and painting.
